Lucky Dube, Good Girl

When you were a little girl I had dreams and I had plans for you As a single father I knew There was gonna be turbulance Along the way I did not know that so soon I' d have to stand on the side Watch you go through life Without my guidance you see I wanted to be there when you cry I wanted to be there when you smile I wanted to be there when you play I wanted to be there all your life I would say it's wrong She' d say it' s right Words got spoken since I live in a glass house I didn' t want no stones to be thrown I didn' t want no blows to be thrown But I would hate to see my...

Chorus: Good girl go bad Good girl go bad

The games we played The rhymes you taught me Everything we did together Those were the best days of my life I will always remember The little girl you were once I wanted to be there when you cry I wanted to be there when you smile I wanted to be there when you play I wanted to be there all your life I would say it's right She'd say it's wrong I would say it's wrong She'd say it's right Words got spoken since I live in a glass house I didn' t want no stones to be thrown I didn' t want no blows to be thrown But I would hate to see my...
