

Lucky Twice, Hey Girl

Now everybodys looking for the fuel for a dance reaction
Yeah, cause everybody needs a little early morning ecstasy
I said open up your mind and cross the line into the promised land
You can reserve a seat in heaven by becoming what you wanna be
And I said hey girl, make a move
Everybody loves those dancing shoes
Everybody loves the things you do
Theyre watching you, thyre watching you now
So get your motor running, pop the hood, and let me work it over
Just relax, Ill tune you up into a hopping little dance machine
Girl, we all could use a lession in the art of happy-go-lucky
I'll have you speeding down the highway once I've pumped you up with gasoline
And I said hey girl, make a move
Everybody loves those dancing shoes
Everybody loves the things you do
Theyre watching you, thyre watching you now
Play when you wanna play put it all on the line say ehat you wanna say you'll be fine
