

Lucy Woodward, What's Good For Me Complete

I ain't no queen of hearts
I go through stages
I fall in love then complicate it yeah, you know the feeling without much hope

just blind ambition pretendin' that there's nothing missin' I always kept believing

that more
I thought if I had more
I wouldn't get so bored but everything just left me empty love, walking in and out of my door wasn't good enough no more when I don't trust myself, life really sucks first time I thought it but I didn't do it last time that's when I really blew it so this time I'm gonna do it different cause I know, I know, I know if I put everything I have into it eventually, I'm gonna get what's good for me

I'm just trying to be creative but everyones so opinionated they want to tell me what I'm feeling cause one man's junks another's treasure when it's done it's hard to measure or keep form believing

if only I had more
but I know it's gonna leave me empty life, walking in and out of my door
when I don't trust myself, my heart gets stepped on

first time I thought it but I didn't do it
last time that's when I really blew it
so this time I'm gonna do it different
cause I know, I know, I know
if I put everything I have into it

cause I don't want to live my life wondering if only I would've, I should've, I could've but I didn't cause I only blame myself again

first time I thought it but I didn't do it
last time that's when I really blew it so this time, this time, this time
if I put everything I have into it
eventually I'm gonna get what's good for me

I, I, I thought it but I didn't do it
last time that's when I really blew it
so this time I'm gonna do it different
eventually I'm gonna get what's good for me, for me

Yeah, I know
(thought it but I didn't do it that's when I really blew it
so this time I'm gonna do it different
cause I know, I know, I know)

Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh
(thought it but I didn't do it
I'm gonna do it different
I know, I know, yeah
(I'm gonna do it different

cause I know I'm gonna get what's good for me
