Man 1: Aye man, don't I know you from somewhere before?

Man 2: Yeah, uhh.

Man 1: You went to Washington, didnt' you?

Man 2: Uh, yeah I did go to Washington.

Man 1: Your name's Willy Beamen.

Man 2: Yup, that's my name.

Man 1: Yeah, Willy Beamen, yeah man, what's goin' on folk?

Man 2: Yeah, what's up man, you James right?

Man 1 [James]: Yeah, James man, James...You remember me right? You use to beat me up and th

Man 2 [Willy Beamen]: Well you know that was funny.

James: You was on the wrestlin' and football team and ya'll ran train on my sister.

Willy Beamen: Well you know, uh, she had some good stuff yo.

James: Aye man, aye aye man, watch yourself.

Willy Beamen: But it's all good.

James: So what cha been doin' folk?

Willy Beamen: Just chillin', you know I got an internet business now.

James: Oh for real? What you doin', what you doin', oh you doin' them womenfolk, what it be, freak

Willy Beamen: Yeah you know how it is, www. uhhh...

James: Aw shorty, shit, shorty I had a computer shop, I'd hit that shit up.

Willy Beamen: Yeah.

James: Damn folk, so what else you been doin'? You be flossin' that big Cartier watch man.

Willy Beamen: You know how I spend big money.

James: Shit man, I feel you, you probably got that new SC too, don't you man?

Willy Beamen: Sc, well you know, it's parked in the back.

James: I see that thang, it's sittin' on them 20's, ain't it?

Willy Beamen: You seen it? Yea...

James: Damn shorty, that shit nice man, I like that.

Willy Beamen: You like that?

James: I like it folk.

Willy Beamen: Yeah...So what you doin' wit yourself these days?

James: Shit man, I got myself a little internet business myself.
