

Ludo, Save Our City

Mr. Mayor
The mission burns
The zombies are marching
They close on the square
Families are cold
Look down at their souls
Huddled in camps on the Old marble steps of City Hall
Faith in their God
That's all they've got

Across the room
Beyond the pane
The whole world is churning
Bleeding and burning
Hailstorms and ash
The moon is as blood
Over the soldiers
Who sag in the mud

Save our city
Keep our souls, Lord
Through the rapture of this world

Little boy
I'm just a man
A mere civil servant
Against this tyrant God
I've allied with out King
Salvation he brings
Protecting the city against
All the troops Heaven sent
But the dead walk again
This is the end

Oh I'm just a man
My time has come
Long live King Simius
May he deliver us
From this nightmare
And with a blast like the sun
His lips are unwrapped
From the barrel of his gun

Save our city
Keep our souls, Lord
Through the rapture of this world

Fought and fell for our great king
We burned alive and boiled
The dragon, red and wrathful, call
We rise and march once more
Cursed in death, we starve for flesh
Our skin is cooked and curled
We'll eat our kin and smash them in
In Hell, we'll grind their bones

Save our city
Keep our souls, Lord
Through the rapture of this world

Save our city
Keep our souls, Lord
Through the rapture of this world

Save our city
(Fought and fell for our great king)
Keep our souls, Lord
(We burned alive and boiled)
(Through the rapture)
The mayor's ruined head
The boy steps through the window
(The dragon, red and wrathful, call)
And cries out from the ledge
To the people below
(Of this world)
(We rise and march once more)

There's a time to pray
And there's a time to fight
(Save our city)
(Cursed in death, we starve for flesh)
Anything can be a weapon
If you're holding it right
(Keep our souls, Lord)
(Our skin is cooked and curled)
Defend what is yours
They will not take our souls
(We'll eat our kin and smash them in)
It's time now to
(And so we)
Rise and fight

Save our city
Keep our souls, Lord
Rise now and fight

Ah ah ah ah ah ah ah
Ah ah ah ah ah ah ah
Ah ah ah ah ah ah ah
Ah ah ah ah ah