

Lugnut, Slipped Disk

We've all had our ups and downs hard times have worked us all but its good to know we're there to break each others falls were united through our Father its a bond we will never break i will be there to pick you up no matter how long it takes we're inseperable nothing can tear us apart be there for me i'll always do my part we're bonded through our Father just realize we are brothers nothing can tear us apart
