

Luka Bloom, Love Is A Place I Dream Of

Love is a place I dream of
A face that never leaves my mind
Sorrow is over my shoulder
But it's over

Someday I will cross the world for you
No matter how far
Just to be there
Someday I will hold you in my arms
So special you are
Wait and see my love, set you free

Love is a place I dream of
I hear you cry so far away
There is a bridge I'm building
Take me to the one I love someday

Someday I will cross the world for you
No matter how far
Just to be there
Someday I will hold you in my arms
So special you are
Wait and see my love, set you free

I'm coming home child
