

Lullacry, Be My God (Tribal Reprise)

Pretend to control me
to pull my strings
to be my god, be mine Pretend to love and hate to take care of me
to be my faith, be mine
I always wanted you to be my god
I trusted you, but now you're gone
Pretend to control me
to be my faith, be mine
I always wanted you to be my god
I trusted you, but now you're gone
I always needed you to be inside me
I guess you'll never, never be my god
