

Lullacry, Embrace Me

Give me teardrops
And say that you're mine See how wicked are the restless ones in grace

It's our twisted love That turns me on I never wanted to go where the memories lie
In the endless night

I shall my arms around this fear Don't be afraid now
'cos all the things we have are stronger than life's path

where the memories lie
It's still better to be alive
than to be dead in heaven
Your tuch is so bitter sweet
I want you to embrace me

Embrace me

where the memories lie
It's still better to be alive
than to be dead in heaven
Your tuch is so bitter sweet
I want you to embrace me
