

Lullacry, I Want You

I was running away from you
Every day was dark and blue

You were always on my mind, my precious
It's the fate that I cant find

I miss you, I need you
My heart is burning with this love
It makes me want you even more

I was hiding the love from you
Every night was dark and blue

Now I'm trying to start all over
I surrender to your heart
