

Luna Halo, Attitude

You're such a jet set baby
Cocaine and champaign lady
Caught dancing in the mirror
French kiss, legs and lips, heaven at your fingertips

It's like a nuclear bomb
when I see you shaking out on the floor
You're a crowd pleaser baby
but I think you should be giving me more

And I say you, you know I'm into you
What's with the attitude?
What's with the attitude

You say you're over this scene
But you live to be the Queen
Smile worth a million dollars
Uphill eyes down in flames
Everybody knows your name

It's like a nuclear bomb
when I see you shaking out on the floor
You're a crowd pleaser baby
but I think you should be giving me more

And I say you, you know I'm into you
What's with the attitude?
What's with the attitude

It's just the way you move...

And I say you, you know I'm into you
(You're such a jet set lady)
What's with the attitude?
(Cocaine and champaign lady)
What's with the attitude
And I say you, you know I'm into you
(Caught dancing in the mirror)
What's with the attitude?
What's with the attitude?
