

Luna Halo, I'm Alright

It's been too long, too hard, too far
I know you don't know me at all
I'm screaming, I'm breathing, I'm looking up at you from the floor
I'm moving, I'm wondering, I'm thinking that there's got to be more

And I know these days
they fade away like stealing time
Just let me be 'cause I'm alright

I'm waking up to bigger things
I'm digging, I'm clawing, I'm doing anything that I can I'm dealing, I'm feeling, that somethings got to give in the end

And I know these days
they fade away like stealing time
Just let me be 'cause I'm alright
So kill my pain to save my pride
Just let me be 'cause I'm alright
