

Luna Halo, Superman

Superman
That's what you want me to be, yeah
To be your everything
I only wish you could see, yeah

If I could fly
From all the pain and the fear
Tell me why
Why would I be standing here, yah

I can't be everything
But I know the One who can
Although I tried to be
You were left with empty hands
And I hope you wake up
And do your best to understand
That I can't be your Superman
I can't be your Superman

If I was strong
Stronger than a thousand men
Would I be close
To what you think I am, yeah
