Luna, Hey Sister

up on the roof it's almost dawn see the water towers look so forlorn they've got no reason to feel that way night turn to day let's get away it's another day let's get away it's another day we'll go somewhere we've never been time's runnin' out we'll start again what's round the bend i just can't say night turn to day let's get away it's another day let's get away it's another day
