

Luna, Rollercoaster

well he fell from the skies with a sense he devised and he dropped out of school with his evil sunglasses and the desert he crossed was a picture to see roll in the sand
he had it all in his hand (chorus)
you're gonna live forever we can see you roll in the sand he was a bungling thief turning fiction to fact and back at the hill
they want him to act
(chorus)
