Close your eyes, open your mind, going back for a moment of time
To those days and take back the eternity and the hope you felt for sure

Time changes all and strives to change me, too
If we fight, it hurts If we surrender, we go under

And many people are lost and hurt They let go of their most precious thing

Even if it breaks me into pieces
I want to keep believing, keep feeling till it ceases
The eternity deep in my heart

So, remember
That body, soul, mind, blood, tears, dreams, love, pain, and joy
Cause, they're all so precious, forever & ever

So bright Kagayaite Shinji tsudzukete
Tonight Tabidatou Hikari no naka e
