

Lunarin, Silverpiece

Take my hand blood on water
Take me now and drown me in oblivion
Taste my skin as I burn inside

I concealed words unspoken
Sacrificed my tongue in your silence
Broke our deal and you went out of sight

I've fallen deep
Lying here
Counting shadows old
Lighting a candle in the dark
Knowing you'll spread your wings and fly

Don't leave me here to my devices

To lose a wager and a soul to keep
To catch the twilight the moons of saturnine
The words you said are cast within my soul
With all that glitters with all that whispers

I've fallen deep
Lying here
Counting shadows old
Lighting a candle in the dark
Knowing you'll spread your wings and fly

Don't leave me here to my devices

Am I still alive ? I caught your shadow as I breathe
Was it all a lie ? I caught your shadow as I bleed

Don't leave me here to my devices
Don't leave me here to my devices

Take my hand blood on water
Take my hand blood on water
