

Lunatic Soul, lunatic soul

I can't describe what's going on with me
A different nature moving rapidly
Being half way here
And half way somewhere else
My whole life starts to flash in front of me
I'm overwhelmed in joy, quiet and peace
All words I know are three-dimensional
I feel all troubles are gone
I feel all troubles are gone
Timeliness,
Ineffability
I glimpse the spirits of my relatives
I see the others
The being of light
Shifting through a tunnel, long and dark
I regret all those things that I had left undone
And I wish I could fix everything that was wrong
I wish I could tell you how sorry I am
This is not the end
Is the start of something that I'm really scared of
That I'm scared to life
That I'm scared to life
That I'm scared to life
That I'm scared to life
