

Lunatica, New Shores

A brandnew thought is born in our minds,
Growing and taking clear shape
Will you reach for our hands and believe
That we are leading you up to new shores?
Caged, awake
So come with us on a journey to irrationality.
Dreams and history, the adventure of your life!
Let yourself go, take a step into our world of melodies!
That's where hope means everything
Everyone can live their own dreams
It's just a matter of will
Take a step ahead, don't look back
May the wind be our eternal guide
So come with us on a journey to irrationality.
Dreams and history, the adventure of your life!
Let yourself go, take a step into our world of melodies!
That's where hope means everything
Follow your heart, lift your voice!
Music can open a door
It's the oldest way of expressing our feelings
Up to new shores! We'll go ahead
