

Lunik, Fall

Why do I feel so alone when you're sitting here with me
Why do I think that you don't need me anymore
We're both feeling so alone
I thought nothing would ever be between us but I was wrong
Now hold your breath and take my hand - it's time to run
Together let's search for the end of the world and jump
I thought nothing would ever be between us but I was wrong

Fall, fall, fall

Together we built a part of life and then we slowly destroyed it
We gotta be strong and carry on alone
I thought nothing would ever be between us but I was wrong

I didn't ever wanna leave your side but no one stops destiny
I didn't mean to leave you behind
But we missed the chance and we lost the fight
Our lives had come between us
Don't rememeber how to stand without you by my side
This is why I

Fall, fall, fall
