

Luther Vandross, Emotion Eyes

Tears on your pillow, that's evidence
Crying all night, it don't make no sense
Never know what to do, so the tears come out
I used to wonder what this thing is all about

Your so sensitive
So willing to give
Girl, you just a cutie, yeah, yeah
But, everything hits your tender spot
I think I see just what you've got

Bridge:
Emotion eyes see what they wanna see
They just won't let it be
There's always somethin goin on Emotion eyes, cant seem to be without
Something to cry about
They just get so emotional

Verse Two:
My, oh, mercy me, just what do you see?
Nothing stops those tears from coming
What's the matter chile', don't you ever smile?
Watchin you is really something

You don't need to struggle with your badness
'Cause you the baddest girl there'll ever be
You've got to learn to compromise
You've got to dry your weeping eyes
Watch what you see with those...

Bridge:
You don't need to struggle with your badness
You just about the baddest girl there will ever be
You've got to learn to compromise
You've got to dry your weeping eyes
Watch what you do with those

Bridge:
