

Luther Vandross, Too Far Down

Last time you thought of him he thought of you and it proves the magic was for real just then the winds of change brought down the falling rain, so unexpected what should you do?

Now, you've got plans to change, some things to rearrange Scared of tomorrow, scared of right now too see, it's all very sad can't deny you feel bad But I just don't want you to let this thing take you over

Don't let it hurt so bad, don't let it because Everything can be the way that it was but keep hurt inside and it's just like those tears of a clown Everyone says that you'll come back around but, not if you fall too far down

No one really knows when their clouds will go away that's why they say we should always save for a rainy day

Someone made some promises they didn't keep it set you up just to let you down be careful not to let it push you around and you'll be ok, if you take one day by one day see, I just don't want you to let this thing take you over

Don't let it hurt so bad, don't let it because...

most of your life can be the way that it was but keep hurt inside and it's just like the tears of the clown everyone thinks that you'll come back around but not if you fall too far down

Bridge: too far down is where you'll fall when you don't care no more but, what about love?
Isn't it worth living for?
you don't know.....

Don't let it hurt so bad, don't let it because Everything can be the way it was but keep hurt inside and it's just like the tears of a clown Everyone says that you'll come back around
but, not if you fall too far down you're not the only one who's loved and who's lost so many people too, know they've all paid the cost the thing that we learn is how to get a smile from a frown go ahead if you want, stumble and fall but don't fall honey too far down pick yourself up, if you're lost then you'll be found but if you don't care then you're just too far down I know you feel so left out pushed around but nevertheless, don't go too far down
