

Luti-Kriss, An Act Of My Own Volition

Rise

Back on my knees

I thought of you

I've never cried so happy

When I breathe out, you breathe me back

The greatest gift I've got is you

When I smile my thoughts are on you

No death, no life, no time

(Will take me away)

When it's quiet

I know you're there

To my God: Glory

Always seeming two thieves at my side

But in you I keep my eyes

You're all I want

Rise

Always seeming two thieves at my side

But in you I keep my eyes

You're all I want

God be pleased

This world has nothing to offer anymore. Come back soon

This world has nothing to offer, come back soon

Welcome back
