

Lux Occulta, The Kingdom Is Mine

remember? you pushed my body into the mud you turned my head into stone you broke my wings remember? you turned my limbs into snaketails you've forgotten about my existence ha! you fool! you've forgotten me!

thousands of suns have passed as i've been crawling in my own blood myriads of years i've been waiting for the beautiful day of payback i speak with the tongue of all deceived come, taste the fist of all you have hurt the time has come, now i stand strained meet The Advocate of the sinful ones how dare you, deceiver, to call yourself a god?

with the tears of millions now i burn your eye i reveal the only truth, i awake the inner might for i am the highest angel - The Bringer Of The Light

natus est Dominus...

taste my revenge!
the kingdom is mine!
