

Luxuria, Dirty Beating Heart

I copy love really badly more often than not all too little I've wanted an awful lot
so I keep blowing you up you keep coming apart it's this dirty big, dirty great
dirty beating heart

Dirty beating heart
I love my love for you
string me along
dirty beating heart
you are like naked cable
you're stale, unstable
dirty beating heart
my carousel

I'm on the trail of vapours down a fancy colonnade where ghosts of stories parade accept this wanton homage
I love my love for you
I am falling off a mountain without a view

Dirty beating heart
I love my love for you
string me along
dirty beating heart
my carousel

I really need to carry on
dirty beating heart
I know all too well

wanton homage
it's given gladly
you copy love so badly
dirty beating heart
how you string me along

Dirty beating heart
my dirty beating heart love my dirty beating dirty beating dirty beating dirty beating heart
