

Lycia, Everything Is Cold

life is so bare, life is so, so bare we must not run, must not fight we must stay here forever everything is cold, everything is cold i am such a child, just let me take this away... again everyday i pray for love of...
life, every day i pray for love of...
life is so bare, life is so, so bare
i don't think that i can take this again
everything is cold, everything is cold i am such a liar, just let me throw this away... again everyday i pray for love of...
la la la la laa laa...
