

Lydia Lunch, Snakepit breakdown

He slits my throat and drinks my blood and says that this just ain't enough
It doesn't matter anyhow
It doesn't matter anyhow
My wrists are tied above my head
He says He loves me when I'm dead
It doesn't matter anyhow
cause it don't hurt if you don't fall He slams my head into the wall my body slumps, it slides I fall I couldn't see, I couldn't think If this, my love, is you, it stinks
He says He'll be there when I die to stick a needle in my eye
He says He loves me when I'm dead
so He just kills me until then He calls me baby, twisted lies and says that now I'm going to die He breaks apart, cuts me in two I say forget it, now we're through don't poke the holes inside my head my heart is bursting out of them don't poke the holes inside my heart my head is bursting out of them
He says he loves me when I'm dead
so He just kills me until then.
