

Lyfe, Intro (The Phoenix)

Aye yo whats good? Man, this ya guy Lyfe Jennings.

Once again, man, I just want to start off by sayin thank you.

To everybody who supported me.

Whether them buying the album or telling somebody else that I had something postive, something

I just wanted to point out that a lot of cats are gonna be coming into the middle of the story on this album 2.

So if something seems out of context its probably because you don't have album one.

So if you don't have album one.

Go Get It.

And if you already got album number one.

Go Get It.

And if you already have album number one.

Go Get It again.

Ha. We now return to our program previously recorded already in progress.
