

Lykathea Aflame, Flowering Entities

Any negative emotion as a response for stimulus from enviros arisen in us show us that we are still within power of superficial dimension and teach us

Let's learn

As the Sun for the Earth let's become salavation let creatures flower and shine under the touches of beautiful energy Perhaps it can't be seen but they are starving and thirsty; they're eager

As a mirror light let's reflect negativity and show pure reality let's become the islands of peace and harmony in that vast ocean of discomposure and disharmony and let the tired ones rest
