

Lykathea Aflame, To Become Shelter and Salvati

I am not able to tell you by words what I feel.... anymore.

To become shelter and salvation

To become shelter and salvation

Those so magnificent loveful waves reach far beyond the shore of my body.

I weep for the pain I have ever caused you even I know it is the teacher leading us towards the light.

Learn to read from the eyes - they are the open gates to heart.

The waves of so magnificent loveful energy are flowing through and among my fingers and my body is bathing in that purifying bath.

I wish to become shelter and salvation...
