Lykke Li, deep end

Wait up
don't wanna wait up for you, baby still I wait up lonely in the canyon
No love
there's no love reflecting in the glow of million dollar man

swimming pool /4x indigo, deep blue, deep blue Oh, baby, I know where you've been I know where you've been in the dep end! swimming pool /4x indigo, deep blue, deep blue Oh, baby, I know where you've been I know where you've been in the dep end!

hold on, don't wanna hold on if you let go I can't go on it takes two to dance

swimming pool /4x indigo, deep blue, deep blue Oh, baby, I know where you've been I know where you've been in the dep end! swimming pool /4x indigo, deep blue, deep blue Oh, baby, I know where you've been I know where you've been in the dep end!
