

Lykke Li, HIGHWAY TO YOUR HEART

Spun around your side for so long
Thought maybe time would catch on
Spun around your side for so long
Thought maybe time would catch on

Night falls
And it rains
And I wake up alone

Get high
But it won't last
I'm still alone

Is there a highway
Is there a highway to your heart
Is there a highway
Is there a highway to your heart

And it hurts your heart's not ready
Wanna know, wanna know
Will our love always stay freewheelin'
No no no no no no

Night Falls
And it rains
And I wake up alone

Get high
But it won't last no
I'm still alone

Is there a highway
Is there a highway to your heart
Is there a highway
Is there a highway to your heart

Spun around your side for so long
Thought maybe time would catch on
Spun around your side for so long
Must have read the signs all wrong
