

Lynn Anderson, I Can Spot A Cheater

See the way he smiles and flirts behind him he's left miles of hurt
I wonder just how many hearts he's told he would stay
He wants a thrill and nothing more I know I've seen his kind before
I can spot a cheater a mile away
The things he says are so polite he chooses every word just right
He doesn't seem to care about what's happened yesterday
He'll hold your hand and kiss your lips your mind will take exotic trips
I can spot a cheater a mile away
Don't get me wrong I used to be in love with him
I can't begin to tell you just how happy we were then
I found out and you will too his kind of love just can't be true
Here today and gone tomorrow that's the game he plays
So friend that's why I'm warning you so you'll know what you're getting into
I can spot a cheater a mile away
