

Lynn Anderson, True Love's A Blessing

True love's a blessing true love's a wonderful blessing
True love's a blessing wait and see
When you've got a good man the world is in your hands
True love's a blessing yes siree

Some men love for money some make love a game
Some men use their love a stepping stones to fame
There are many kinds of love in this great big land
But there's no love like a love of a real good man
True love's a blessing...

[banjo]

Some men take their love too casually they flirt
Some men use their love to break a heart to hurt
There are many kinds of love to be found that's true
But there's no love like a love I found when I found you
True love's a blessing...
True love's a blessing...
