

Lynn Anderson, You Mean The World To Me

There I come and bluebirds sing outside the grass is green
But I don't care the sun shines or it rains
Cause I'm happy as I can be as long as you will stand by me
And nothing beside a heaven can make me change
Cause you you mean all the world to me yes you you mean all the world to me
[steel]

You start my day with warm sweet kiss you keep my world turnin' with tenderness
And you always say the right then when I'm blue
When dark clouds're gettin' to cover my sky
And temptation looks me right straight in the eye
It all disappears when you say I love you
Cause you you mean all the world to me you you mean all the world to me
You you mean all the world to me
