

Lynyrd Skynyrd, Jacksonville Kid

This old town ain't been the same,
since this old boys been gone.
Lord I still got some good friends,
but I feel so all alone.
All I hear is disco,
see pretty boys with high heels on.

Well some people sure hate me,
an the police dog me round.
Well the only place I'm welcome,
is on the west side of town
Lord I'm on there wanted posters,
I cant show my face in town.

play this one for south side...

Jacksonville I love you,
but you dont want me around.
Jacksonville you raised me,
an this is where I got my sound.
Although I'm your outlaw,
I still love my hometown,all around.

ahh this is for the west side boys..

This old town ain't been the same,
since your native sons been gone.
Lord I still got some old friends,
but I am so all alone.
All I hear is the disco,
see pretty boys with high heels on.
Well you can keep your disco,
pretty boys with high heels on.
