

M People, Renaissance

Boy there's so many things to give
I've been aware of your charms for so long
And there's nothing that you can do
To stop me from coming around

I'm coming
I'm coming,

I'm coming home I'm coming home
To your house
I'm coming home I'm coming home
To your house
I'll be your queen upon a throne
In your house
I'm coming home I'm coming home
To your house

You can build it from bricks and stone
But there ain't no use in being alone
So unlock your door I'm coming through
Coz this heart's got a message for you.

CHORUS

By land and sea I'm coming home
Come fly with me I'm coming home
I'll be your queen upon a throne
I'll make you scream aloud with joy.

I'll bring you gifts cash money too
I'll bring it all on home to you
There'll be no black, there'll be no white
There'll be no day there'll be no night.

Have mercy mercy mercy (X4)
