

Maanam, Kreon

What kind of home has foundation that shake
Where brothers cut throats
With knives of hate
There's always a part for you, kreon
And for the hero Antygon

Nothing has changed
For thousand of years
The same old desires
The same old greed
Lose everything
People turn from your throne
You'll face the end
Forever alone...

You'd better watch out
Kreon, Kreon
I'll never give you
A peaceful moment
If I want, I'll be a rat
And find you in the darkest corner
If I want, I'll be a cockroach
Crawl in your ear
And poison your last hope
I could be your shadow
On a long hot day
Be your lover in the middle of the night

You say I'm defenceless
You must be joking
I'm a rough diamond
You are only shining me

You'd better watch out
Kreon, Kreon
I'll never give you
A peaceful moment
If I want, I'll be a rat
And find you in the darkest corner
If I want, I'll be a cockroach
Crawl in your ear
And poison your last hope
I could be your shadow
On a long hot day
Be your lover in the middle of the night

I'm a rough diamond
You are only shining me

I'm a rough diamond
You are only shining me

I'm a rough diamond
