

Mabel, GOOD LUCK (feat. Jax Jones, Galantis)

Boys are so out
They think the grass is greener then they realize, oh
Girl, it's alright
No, you don't really need him wasting your time, your time (That's right)

Try to upgrade you, he must be out his mind
He can play his games but that don't make him wise
'Cause a woman like you, he never could replace
Kill that boy with kindness, hey girl, you should say
You should say (You should say, you should say, you should say)
Oh, you should say (You should say, you should say)
Yeah, one, two, three

Good luck
Going 'round the world, chasin' other girls, thinkin' you'll find better, baby
Good luck
Looking for the touch, can't replace with love, thinkin' you'll find better, baby
Good luck

Boy, you've been 'round the world lovin' on other girls
But you will never find a love like mine, a love like
Good luck
Boy, you thought I was hurt to see you with other girls
But I know you'll never find a love like mine, a love like
Good luck
Ah, ah, yeah

Hell no
You found out he was creepin' on the down low (Down low)
So he gon' see the back of you when you walk
That's when you'll know he's got it way too comfortable, comfortable (That's right)

Try to upgrade you, he must've bumped his head
He can play his games but God, did he forget?
That a woman like you, he never could replace
Kill that boy with kindness, hey girl, you should say
You should say (You should say, you should say, you should say)
Oh, you should say (You should say, you should say)
Yeah, one, two, three

Good luck
Going 'round the world, chasin' other girls, thinkin' you'll find better, baby
Good luck
Looking for the touch, can't replace with love, thinkin' you'll find better, baby
Good luck

Boy, you've been round the world lovin' on other girls
But you will never find a love like mine, a love like
Good luck
Boy, you thought I was hurt to see you with other girls
But I know you'll never find a love like mine, a love like
Good luck

I know, know you'll never
Good luck (A love like mine, a love like mine)
I know, know you'll never
Good luck (A love like mine, a love like mine)

He ain't worth the drama (Ah, ah)
In due time, he'll get his karma (He'll get his karma)
You gon' find your happy ever after (Ah, ah)
But he won't find better
So wish him good luck (Boy, you've been round the world lovin' on other girls)
Girl, he won't find better (But you will never, but you will never, never)

So wish him good luck (Boy, you've been round the world lovin' on other girls but you will never)
Yeah, one, two, three

Good luck

Going 'round the world, chasin' other girls, thinkin' you'll find better, baby (Better, baby)

Good luck

Looking for the touch, can't replace with love, thinkin' you'll find better, baby (Can't replace with love)

Good luck

[Outro]

I know you'll never

Good luck (Oh)

A love like mine, a love like mine (Woo!)

I know, know

See you with other girls (You'll never)

Good luck

Thinkin' you'll find better, baby

Good luck
