

Mabel, Let Them Know

Nails shine like Christmas
Heels on six inches
Waist cinched, Mugler fit
You can't have this, you can't hit this
I got a new man in my business
And he all about his business
And his name ain't none of your business

Pin-up girl on that poster
Say so like i am Doja
Icey, wifey
Body shape coca-cola
I got a new man in my business
And he all about his business
And his name ain't non of your business

Let them know
Oh baby, let them know
Cause they can run they mouth
But imma stand and pose for you
Let them know
Go Ahead and flip that switch
No they can't beat you down,
cause , baby your that bitch

Lips pink like peaches
Money long like beaches
Rolls-royce, screeching
Rolex gleaming
Blinde haur
I bleached itt
You could call me Kelis
I stay up on my queen shit
Up there the haters look teeny tiny

Let them know
Oh baby, let them know
Cause they can run they mouth
But imma stand and pose for you
Let them know
Go Ahead and flip that switch
No they can't beat you down,
cause , baby your that bitch

All girls the bassiline
Ponytail to the waistline
Throw it back baby, take time
Money talks and i make mine

Let them know
Oh baby, let them know
Cause they can run they mouth
But imma stand and pose for you
Let them know
Go Ahead and flip that switch
No they can't beat you down,
cause , baby your that bitch
Let them know
Oh baby, let them know
Cause they can run they mouth
But imma stand and pose for you
Let them know
Go Ahead and flip that switch
No they can't beat you down,
