

MAC MILLER, Hand Me Downs

I am thinking maybe I should thank you baby, I should buy you another round 'cause you care and I swear it'll mirror but I am there it's getting harder to admit now get away to a place where the lakes such a great view leave the bank couple hunnid' thou' I made it, but once I build it , I break it down might just break me down
