

MAC MILLER, We (feat. CeeLo Green)

You could be my
Baby you could be my
Baby you can be my
I feel like you could be my
Said you could be my...

Well, you ain't in the mood to argue
Baby don't you worry, this some shit to get along to Some shit I right my wrongs to
Well, I've tried to call you, have us some discussion
We never talk, we always way too busy fuckin'
I'll think of something to say, I always do
I'm in love with the way that you say my name
Every time it sound brand new

Always wonderin' what we'll be
I say we sound better than you or me

Baby you could be my.
Well ok, it's alright,
I feel like you can be my...
Well ok, it's alright,
And I can be your.
Well ok, it's alright, it's ok
Only if you be my...
It's alright, it's ok

Ok and time will tell
If I'm alive and well, cause when I'm by myself
I find that I keep flying high, sometimes I must remind myself
That change is more than pennies laying on the floor inside the well
Cross my mind, do not apologize for being fine as hell
I'm spinning here inside your spell,
My mind has start to wander
I missed a day, I stay up late admiring your posture
And you, always wondering what we'll be
I say we sound better than you or me

Baby you could be my.
Well ok, it's alright,
I feel like you can be my...
Well ok, it's alright,
And I can be your.
Well ok, it's alright, it's ok
Only if you be my...
It's alright, it's ok

There's no more you or me, me or we, sweetheart
And I can see, I can see, so much better
I'm carefully, precious things fall apart
Just let them be, let it be forever
Loving me, in spite of me, bless your heart,
I can breathe, I can breathe so much better,
I won't let anything tear us apart, no, no!
We are we, we are we, forever
Forever, forever, forever

Baby you could be my.
Well ok, it's alright,
I feel like you can be my...
Well ok, it's alright,
And I can be your.
Well ok, it's alright, it's ok
Only if you be my...

It's alright, it's ok
