Macbeth, Don't include me in your dreams

Every day that goes by
Is dead and gone
Every step along the way
Fades to grey

Dont include me in your dreams
Im dead and gone
Every single moment dies

"Never enough"
And the point if there is one
"Never enough"
Is that all precious time goes by

Dont include me in your dreams
Were dead and gone
Every single moment dies

"Never enough"
And the point if there is one
"Never enough"
Is that all precious time goes by

"Never enough"
You will wake up one day
"Never enough"
But it will be too late
