

Machinae Supremacy, Fury

And now I lay awake
My eyes unclosed
The fire snake
Superimposed
On our barren world tonight.
Simple but supreme
The dragon roar
Evil and mean
I hear it soar
Not far above our world tonight.

Now the immortal beast
Descends on me
Prepares to feast
My enemy
Is taunting me to fight.
Simple but supreme
The dragon roar
Evil and mean
I hear it soar
Not far above our world tonight.

Nocturnal light and thunder blasting from the sky.
The beast is hunting for a prey that can not die.
But this is how it's always been since-since the dawn of time
And it will always be the dragon fury rhyme.

Now!
Now!

An ancient beast that occupies the high above.
A raging monster to be fearful of.
Simple aggression purely spawned from Mother Earth
A true impression of the might of her.

Now! Descend from above!
Now! Descend from above!

And now I lay awake
My eyes unclosed
The fire snake
Superimposed
On our barren world tonight.
Simple but supreme
The dragon roar
Evil and mean
I hear it soar
Not far above our world tonight.

Now!
Now! Descend from above!
