

Machinae Supremacy, Return To Snake Mountain

I taste the bitter sweetness of revenge and fly
no other meaning ever
stills my violent sky

Abused and violated
by those who control
I am re-animated
yet I have no soul

There's no distinction in my mind
You are all my enemies

I will return
to reclaim my broken past to pay the evil minions back for my misery at last
I will return
to the fortress to redeem to wipe this evil nightmare from my memory and dreams

I will not fade away and die like all the rest I will return to wipe out terminate your nest
