

Machine Gun Fellatio, Summer Scene

I've got a friend in Jesus, he's got a friend in me.
He's a little hung up on God, but we've agreed to disagree.
Sometimes when I'm feeling horny, I call you up at home.
One time when your boyfriend answered
I pretended I was selling mobile phones.
Coz I'm loving this summer scene
I'm digging this summer sound
I'd have everything I need if you were here with me now
I could be taller, tighter, tanned more than I am
But it would take a lot more cash for me to be your money man
Sometimes when I'm feeling horny, I call you up at home
One time when your boyfriend answered
I pretended I was selling mobile phones
Coz I'm loving this summer scene
I'm digging this summer sound
I'd have everything I need if you were here with me now
I'm loving this summer scene
I'm digging this summer sound
I'd have everything I need if you were coming around
Baby this is my town
