

Machine Gun Fellatio, The Mirrorball's Starting To

I'm drinking wine in the morning
I just can't seem to stop
Snorting blue collar gak from a black hooker's arse
The mirrorball's starting to rock
The mirrorball's starting to rock
Snorting blue collar gak from a black hooker's arse
The mirrorball's starting to rock
Hanging out the window by my ankles
Watching the television drop
Every Japanese boy's an unsung Ninja
And the mirrorball's starting to rock
The mirrorball's starting to rock
If Pinky grinned any harder
I swear he'd pierce both his ears
The brothers non-stop pop around the clock
And the mirrorball, and the mirrorball
Starting to rock
