

Machine Gun Kelly, banyan tree (interlude)

My god

Did you drink a lot of tequila?

Yeah

Is that what it was?

Yeah

You wanna listen to the interlude while we sit here?

Yeah

Put it on

Do you, like, remember the stuff that you do with me?

Yes

Okay, I don't know 'cause you're so high or, like, you get really drunk, so I don't know if you remember

Of course I do

Okay

I cherish it

I burn other memories just to make room for those ones

That was four months ago that we were right here and I met you

That's not possible

Like, you just got my initials tattooed on you

I got your nickname tattooed on me

Mhm

She loves a boy so much

She wants him to steal her breath

She loves (She loves) a boy so much

She wants (She wants) him to steal her breath

Because also

If the world was coming to an end

I don't wanna close my eyes without

Feeling like I lived

Same
