

Machine Gun Kelly, born with horns

Yeah, part one

Why is it so hard to live?

Part two

I shouldn't have done what I did

Part three

Everyone's left me alone

Part four

I don't want to live anymore

Yeah, I'd rather be a freak than somebody's puppet

Release your leash, I don't belong in the circus

They cut each my wings soon as my name was in cursive

Now I'm six feet deep, I guess my life wasn't perfect

In this film I know

There's no happy ending

In this film I know

There's no happy ending

I'm afraid they're awake

I'm cautious who I'm serenading

Summoned them by mistake

Price you pay for entertaining

Can't □ what is fake

Mercury is retrograding

How much time can I waste

Constantly feeling the same thing

Alienate me, I'm not the one you want

I feel so alienated

Like I'm the devil's spawn

A boy with horns

Alienate me, I'm not the one you want

I feel so alienated

Like I'm the devil's spawn

A boy with horns

A boy with horns
