

Machine Gun Kelly, Raise The Flag

Regrets collect like old friends
Here to relive your darkest moments
I can see no way, I can see no way
And all of the ghouls come out to play
And every demon wants his pound of flesh
But I like to keep some things to myself
I like to keep my issues drawn
It's always darkest before the dawn

Kells

All these pretty lights
Can't you see em?

Endless nights

In my life's museum

Where we see our heroes

And pretend to be em

And we seize the day

Carpe Diem

Previous to this dream state I had leftovers on each plate

Left shoe all tattered up from this long journey my feet ache

Left the life that I lived because everyday was just replays

And I dreamed big, walked around in my PJ's

And my street days are still here

Never changed like I still wear

The same pair

Phone call? What for?

We ain't long distance, I'm still there

Still on the blocks where gun cocks and gunshots are more familiar of a sound then what's "hot"

12 dollar showers at truck stops would give anybody motivation that you must not lose this one shot

And every demon wants his pound of flesh
But I like to keep some things to myself
I like to keep my issues drawn
It's always darkest before the dawn

Demon days

Evil nights

Happy hours

Frequent flights

God flow

People's strife

Hear it once

Speak it twice

Hearts never break even

And they change color like seasons

Backs turn like treason

But somehow you swear you ain't leaving

Follow me now, follow me now

Spoon fulls of sugar and handfuls of medicine help it go down

Help it go down

I was just a fool in a room full of Edison's, look at me now

Look at me now

Feel my words

Look at this sound

Reminisce on when I was lookin out on the city

Wishin a million muthafuckas gave me that crown, bitch I run this town

It's always darkest before the dawn

Kells
All of the people out there with me right now
Raise your muthafuckin flags
See this is the beginning
This is ours
This is black flag
